18

Museum Eccel Kreuzer
Via Argentieri 10 Silbergasse

An extremely rich and exhaustive collection that includes comprehensive documentation of modern painting from the regions of Tyrol, South Tyrol and Trentino. It was first carefully collected by patrons Friedrich Eccel and his wife Hilde Eccel Tapfer and later by their son-in-law Josef Kreuzer.

Explore & Relax

24

Bozner Lido | Lido di Bolzano
Viale Trieste 21
Triester Straße

Relax by the pool, surrounded by Ettore Sottsass Senior's 1920s architecture. Locals cool off, eat gelato, and dive into blue pools. You're in for a lot of fun!

25

Montiggler See
Lago di Monticolo

The famous twin lakes, known for their bright blue waters mirroring an even brighter sky, are worth discovering while enjoying a bike ride through the lush surrounding hills.

26

Kalterer See
Lago di Caldaro

Surrounded by vineyards and gentle hills, this lake offers a serene escape into the local winemaking tradition. Its mild climate is ideal for swimming, boating, and scenic walks.

31

Salten | Salto

Discover the Salten near Jenesien, a high larch plateau with scenic trails, stunning views, and cosy alpine huts. Just 20 minutes by car from Bolzano, the Salten is famous for its meadows, grazing horses, and peaceful atmosphere, making it a perfect escape for nature lovers.

32

Kohlern | Colle

After a scenic cableway ride, explore Kohlern: Enjoy the view from the wooden tower (it's steep but worth it), savour Kaiserschmarrn at the local guesthouse, and admire the unique Villa Bittner, known to locals as The Witch's House.

33

Ritten | Renon

Reachable via cableway (or e-bike), Renon is the perfect place to enjoy some winter sun or a summer retreat with a breath-taking view of the Dolomites.

34

Talferwiesen
Prati del Talvera

The place where locals sunbathe in spring and bake in summer, skateboarders practise kickflips, youngsters play football, and the wild green mountains whisk you away to an untouched world.
